THREATS

At this time, The Foreign Commonwealth Office (FCO) advises against all but essential travel to the provinces of Pattani, Yala, Narathiwat and Songkhla on the Thai-Malaysia border. There is a high threat of terrorism in Thailand.

When travelling to/in the Thailand, there is high threat of:

- Terrorism
- Earthquakes

According to the FCO the following locations have been targeted by terrorists: security offices, government offices, supermarkets, schools, transport infrastructure and trains, shopping centres and car parks. Although Westerners are not typically seen as targets, it is important to be vigilant at all times.

Punishment for breaking the law in Thailand can be severe, including the death penalty, make it especially important to abide by local law at all times.

Refer to your own government or embassy for further information applicable to you.

Due to the present threats in Thailand, it is widely recommended that you do not travel to this country without sufficient Travel Insurance. Always check your Travel Insurance policy will cover you for high risk locations.

High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance is available to a wide range of nationalities travelling worldwide and can provide peace of mind when travelling to higher risk destinations such as Thailand, due to the wide range of Medical cover provided within our policies, which is inclusive of Emergency Medical Repatriation/Evacuation, Political and Natural Disaster Evacuation Expenses, Personal Accident cover, Hijack, Mugging, Piracy and Wrongful Detention, PTSD Assessment and Counselling following a Hostile Event and more. High Risk Cover is provided with a 24/7 Emergency Medical Helpline and Assistance Service staffed by experienced coordinators, as well as in depth Pre-Travel Country Information Files and the "One Tap" Emergency App.

Additional Optional cover is available if you wish to extend your High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance policy, such as Enhanced Personal Accident, Non-Medical Coverages (e.g. baggage, travel delay and missed departure) and Cancellation, Trip Interruption and Disruption Coverages.

It is recommended by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office that you have Travel Insurance for Thailand. Always ensure your policy will cover high risk destinations.
