THREATS

At this time, The UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) advises against all travel to Anbar Province, Ninawah Province, Salah-Al-Din Province, Tam'mim (Kirkuk) Province and in Erbil Province, south of Road 80, and within 10km of the border with Ninawah Province between Road 80 and Road 2.

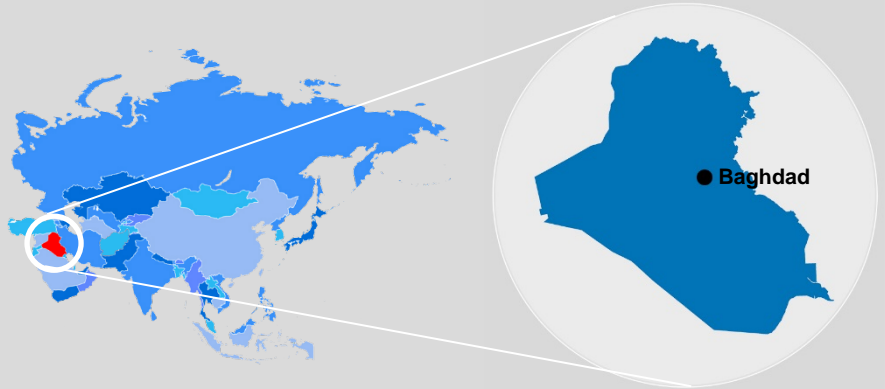

Travelling to/in Iraq there is high threat of:

- Terrorism
- Kidnapping

Daesh holds a strong presence across Iraq, with non-western appearance foreign nationals seen as high value targets for terrorists. Attacks have included shootings, bombings, suicide bombings, vehicle bombs and more.

According to the FCO "Following Daesh's expansion into the country in 2014, there have been numerous and frequent terrorist attacks, and levels of violence remain high".

Refer to your own government or embassy for further information applicable to you.

Due to the present threats in Iraq, it is widely recommended that you do not travel to this country without sufficient Travel Insurance. Always check your Travel Insurance policy will cover you for high risk locations.

High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance is available to a wide range of nationalities travelling worldwide and can provide peace of mind when travelling to higher risk destinations such as Iraq, due to the wide range of Medical cover provided within our policies, which is inclusive of Emergency Medical Repatriation/Evacuation, Political and Natural Disaster Evacuation Expenses, Personal Accident cover, Hijack, Mugging, Piracy and Wrongful Detention, PTSD Assessment and Counselling following a Hostile Event and more. High Risk Cover is provided with a 24/7 Emergency Medical Helpline and Assistance Service staffed by experienced coordinators, as well as in depth Pre-Travel Country Information Files and the "One Tap" Emergency App.

Additional Optional cover is available if you wish to extend your High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance policy, such as Enhanced Personal Accident, Non-Medical Coverages (e.g. baggage, travel delay and missed departure) and Cancellation, Trip Interruption and Disruption Coverages.

It is recommended by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office that you have Travel Insurance for Iraq. Always ensure your policy will cover high risk destinations.
