TREATS

At this time, The UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) has advised against all travel to large areas within Lebanon, particularly areas bordering Syria, Tripoli and areas around Beirut.

When travelling to/in Lebanon, there is high threat of:

- Terrorism
- Kidnapping
- Earthquakes

Threat of attack from Islamic extremist groups such as Daesh, and threat of foreigners being targeted for kidnap is high. Foreigners working in journalism or engaging in humanitarian work are not exempt from targeting.

British nationals are at particular risk due to conflict in Iraq and Syria.

Refer to your own government or embassy for further information applicable to you.

Due to the present threats in Lebanon, it is widely recommended that you do not travel to this country without sufficient Travel Insurance. Always check your Travel Insurance policy will cover you for high risk locations.

High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance is available to a wide range of nationalities travelling worldwide and can provide peace of mind when travelling to higher risk destinations such as Lebanon, due to the wide range of Medical cover provided within our policies, which is inclusive of Emergency Medical Repatriation/Evacuation, Political and Natural Disaster Evacuation Expenses, Personal Accident cover, Hijack, Mugging, Piracy and Wrongful Detention, PTSD Assessment and Counselling following a Hostile Event and more. High Risk Cover is provided with a 24/7 Emergency Medical Helpline and Assistance Service staffed by experienced coordinators, as well as in depth Pre-Travel Country Information Files and the "One Tap" Emergency App.

Additional Optional cover is available if you wish to extend your High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance policy, such as Enhanced Personal Accident, Non-Medical Coverages (e.g. baggage, travel delay and missed departure) and Cancellation, Trip Interruption and Disruption Coverages.

It is recommended by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office that you have Travel Insurance for Lebanon. Always ensure your policy will cover high risk destinations.
