THREATS

At this time, The UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) advise against all travel to large areas of Pakistan, due to a high threat of terrorism, kidnapping and sectarian violence.

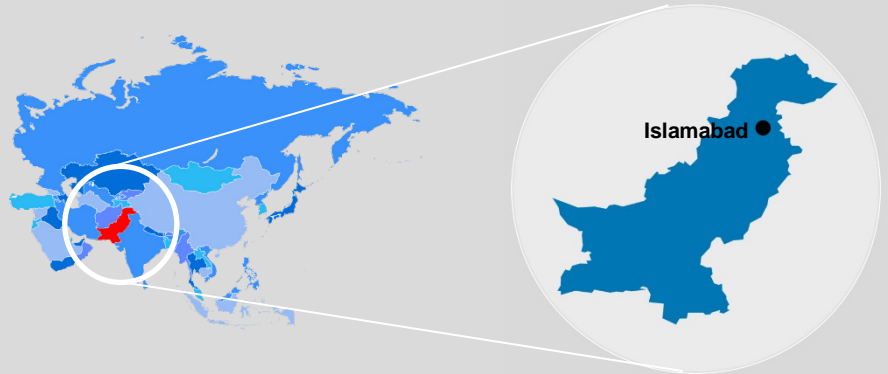

When travelling to/in Pakistan, there is high threat of:

- Terrorism
- Kidnapping
- Earthquakes (subsequently landslides and flooding)

According to The UK Foreign Commonwealth Office (FCO), the main terrorist threat comes from Tehrik-e Taliban Pakistan (TTP) who mainly use the method of Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs), including suicide bombs.

The following places are deemed as places to be avoided: Public gatherings, public places, government buildings, hotels, airports, markets, shopping malls, restaurants, educational institutions, religious shrines, sporting events music venues, 'western' outlets, CD/DVD shops and barber shops.

Refer to your own government or embassy for further information applicable to you.

Due to the present threats in Pakistan, it is widely recommended that you do not travel to this country without sufficient Travel Insurance. Always check your Travel Insurance policy will cover you for high risk locations.

High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance is available to a wide range of nationalities travelling worldwide and can provide peace of mind when travelling to higher risk destinations such as Pakistan, due to the wide range of Medical cover provided within our policies, which is inclusive of Emergency Medical Repatriation/Evacuation, Political and Natural Disaster Evacuation Expenses, Personal Accident cover, Hijack, Mugging, Piracy and Wrongful Detention, PTSD Assessment and Counselling following a Hostile Event and more. High Risk Cover is provided with a 24/7 Emergency Medical Helpline and Assistance Service staffed by experienced coordinators, as well as in depth Pre-Travel Country Information Files and the "One Tap" Emergency App.

Additional Optional cover is available if you wish to extend your High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance policy, such as Enhanced Personal Accident, Non-Medical Coverages (e.g. baggage, travel delay and missed departure) and Cancellation, Trip Interruption and Disruption Coverages.

It is recommended by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office that you have Travel Insurance for Pakistan. Always ensure your policy will cover high risk destinations.
