THREATS

At this time, The UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) has advised against all travel to Yemen mainland and islands since March 2011. If you are in Yemen, you should leave immediately.

When travelling to/in Yemen, there is high threat of:

- Terrorism
- Kidnapping
- Maritime Terrorism

Any international presence from journalists, teachers, students, tourists, oil and gas workers, UN workers and long-term residents may be targeted as opportune kidnaps by terrorist groups, possibly to be sold on to Al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP). AQAP have murdered a number of hostages and produce propaganda to encourage the kidnapping of westerners.

Refer to your own government or embassy for further information applicable to you.

Due to the present threats in Yemen, it is widely recommended that you do not travel to this country without sufficient Travel Insurance. Always check your Travel Insurance policy will cover you for high risk locations.

High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance is available to a wide range of nationalities travelling worldwide and can provide peace of mind when travelling to higher risk destinations such as Yemen, due to the wide range of Medical cover provided within our policies, which is inclusive of Emergency Medical Repatriation/Evacuation, Political and Natural Disaster Evacuation Expenses, Personal Accident cover, Hijack, Mugging, Piracy and Wrongful Detention, PTSD Assessment and Counselling following a Hostile Event and more. High Risk Cover is provided with a 24/7 Emergency Medical Helpline and Assistance Service staffed by experienced coordinators, as well as in depth Pre-Travel Country Information Files and the "One Tap" Emergency App.

Additional Optional cover is available if you wish to extend your High Risk Voyager Travel Insurance policy, such as Enhanced Personal Accident, Non-Medical Coverages (e.g. baggage, travel delay and missed departure) and Cancellation, Trip Interruption and Disruption Coverages.

It is recommended by the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office that you have Travel Insurance for Yemen. Always ensure your policy will cover high risk destinations.
